| Fo1 | Shout about the benefits of planning, storage, understanding dates, perfect portions and lovely leftover recipes. This year we will deliver a variety of activities incl: |  - Issue 6 press releases to local media organisations
  - Get LFHW information into 24 community newsletters
  - 300 tweets
  - 1 web article a month
  - OTS of 12 million | £6520 | Amber | WLWA Planning has begun for a number of the proposed activities. Each of the 6 councils has been given the opportunity to identify which activities they would like to see happening in their local areas. Due to changes resulting from the local elections the decisions have not yet been made. More work will happen in the next 3 months to confirm activities. |  |
|     |   |   |   |   | WLWA have been talking to Wrap about our LFHW campaign. A retail partner is being sought through Wrap to add value. It has been decided not to use the standard LFHW artwork for the campaign, instead it will be based on Zero Waste Scotland posters giving tips about different food types. A design brief has been circulated to obtain quotes to appoint a designer for the adverts and the articles to go in the borough magazines. Quotes are to be returned by 4th July. | Bookings have been made for local |

- We weren’t able to secure space in the Hillingdon People magazine.
- The publication dates for Harrow People haven’t been confirmed yet, we’ve expressed an interest in booking pages in September and December editions.
- Three companies have been approached to provide quotes for poster advertising spaces.
- The company with the contract for all London bus advertising has also been contacted to provide cost details for internal panels.
WLWA have spoken to prospective partners to put together a programme of public facing events including looked at partnering with other local authorities. Work on this activity is still on-going.
The team attended events in May and June to give out tips and information. For details see action C5.

There are still some technical issues to work out with the coding behind the game. It is currently in the process of being tested to see how children respond to it.

2013/14 Furniture 1 – Hounslow Furniture Project new website

WLWA funded a new website for Hounslow Furniture Project. It went live in February 2014.

From 1st April to 30 June 2014 899 unique users visited the site to get information about their services. 79% were new visitors and there were a total of 2658 page views.

2013/14 Furniture 4 – Bulky waste collection services increasing the re-use of good quality furniture

Ealing introduced the re-use hotline in September 2013.

In April, May and June a total of 58 collections were made and 11.56 tonnes sent for re-use.

Links with other waste prevention activities (not covered by this Action Plan) run by Brent, Ealing, Harrow, Hillingdon, Hounslow and Richmond Councils.
